

Do You Know Who Your Imam Is? (kids under 8)

Do you know who your Imam is?

Do you know who your Imam is?

He is Imam al-Mahdi,

He is Imam al-Mahdi,

He is Imam al-Mahdi,

Al ajal Imam al-Mahdi,

Al ajal Imam al-Mahdi,

We await your arrival,
We await your arrival,
Al ajal Imam al-Mahdi,

O' Allah keep our Imam safe,
O' Allah keep our Imam safe,
He is our only saviour, he is our only saviour,
O Allah keep our Imam safe.

O' Imam al-Mahdi! (for Teens)

O' Imam al-Mahdi! How long will you be hidden?
Oblige us, O' our father, with your return!
We feel sad the waiting time is prolonged.
For the sake of Thy Lord, bless us with your audience.
O' the pole of being! Hasten, O' our beloved!

Return, so that we may enjoy the sight.
Surely, it is a great a pleasure
for a lover to meet his beloved after a long absence.

My heart is fine and bright with the love of Haydar
Next to Haydar, al-Hasan is our Guide and Leader.

The dust beneath the Shoes of al-Husayn is the eyeliner (surmah) for my eyes.
al-Abdeeen, the ornament of all devotees
is like a crown on my head.
al-Baqir is the light of both my eyes.
The religion of Ja'far is true and the path of Musa is right.
O, loyal, ones: listen to me praising the King of Kings who is buried in Khurasan, ar-Rida.
A particle from the dust of his tomb is the cure of all pains
Leader of men of faith is al-Taqi, O dear Muslims!
If you love al-Naqi in preference to all other people,
you have done the thing which is proper and right.
al-Askari is the light of the eyes of both Adam and the world.
Where can be found, in the world,
such a chief in command like al-Mahdi?

Praying for the Return of Our 12th Imam (for teens)

A lot of people ask “why do we need an Imam?”

Some people say that the Holy Quran is enough to guide us and that we don't need an Imam. Some say that he is in hiding so how is he helping us?

We know that the Imam is helping us, and that we definitely need him.

Even though there are millions of Muslims today, some still disagree on what the message of the Quran is, and for that reason, we need someone who can tell us the exact meaning of the Quran and the message of the Quran.

We also need somebody who can bring all the people together, so that they do not fight. Just like our eyes, ears, hands, and legs are useful, but depend on the brain to instruct them, we need an Imam to make sure the Quran, and all Islamic teachings are understood and followed properly.

When the Imam will come, he will need individuals who are prepared to assist and help him. Will we be one of those individuals?

If the answer is “yes” then we need to do our best to prepare ourselves so that when the Imam does come, we are ready to answer him and be a part of his army that will establish true Islam and peace.

In everything we do, we should remember our Imam. We should always ask ourselves if we are contributing to the mission of our Imam or if we are the ones who are adding more trouble and making the Imam sad?

We should try to speak about our Imam and the Ma’sumin [AS] and Islam, to our friends and family and help each other prepare for the Imam.

When we hear the names of any of the 14 Ma’sumin [AS], we should ask Allah [SWT] to send His blessings on them by reciting the Salawat.

But remember that when we mention the name of Imam Muḥammad al-Mahdi (may he come to us quickly!)

then we must show him an even more special respect.

We should:

- Bow our heads a little
- Say “Allahumma ‘Ajjil Farajahu” – This means ‘O Allah! Make his return quicker!’

We all look forward to the day that Imam al-Mahdi (May he come to us quickly!) returns and establishes peace and justice and true Islam all over the world.

We look forward to the times when human beings around the world are not fighting and are not at war, but love towards each other.

We should always pray for the return of our Imam in our lifetime and hope that he will come before we die.
