

Muslims, seekers of justice, and freedom-loving non-Muslims; no one should hold back—whether by spending wealth and offering bounties to send these modern-day “Yazids” and criminals to their doom, or by taking practical action and supporting the Mujahideen capable of stepping into this arena.

2- Let us realize that this path paves the way for the advent of our Imam, the Mahdi; for as long as the world and its inhabitants cannot guarantee the safety of the Imam Mahdi blessed life, his advent would signify the martyrdom of yet another Imam. The criminals and devils who, throughout history—from Adam (PBUH) to the Ahl-al-Beit of the Noble Prophet of Islam (PBUH) and the disciples of their divine school of thought, such as the martyred Grand Ayatollah Imam Khamenei—have dragged the righteous to the slaughterhouse of martyrdom, undoubtedly harbor plots against the martyrdom of the Last Imam and Savior of Humanity. It is essential that, through the striving of the Islamic Ummah and by countering these criminals, their schemes be thwarted and the opportunity to martyr the Promised Imam Mahdi be denied to them, thereby paving the way for the Reappearance of Imam Mahdi; this constitutes a divine duty for Muslims, seekers of truth worldwide, and devotees of the love of Husayn in this era.

From the Zionist leaders and capitalist stakeholders—who commit any atrocity to safeguard their interests—to their unleashed hounds like the terrorist Trump and the genocidal Netanyahu, none should find security anywhere on the face of the earth; it is incumbent upon every Muslim—and every justice-seeking non-Muslim—to spill their impure blood by any means necessary for the sake of humanity’s salvation.

Seeking retribution for the standard-bearer of the Resistance Front, Grand Ayatollah Imam Khomeini, and other martyrs of this sacred front—such as Sayyid Hassan Nasrallah, General Soleimani, Abu Mahdi al-Muhandis, Ismail Haniyeh, and Yahya Sinwar—must embody the lessons of the school of Imam Hussein (AS) and the spirit of the magnificent, international Arbacen procession; just as the Sayyed-o-Shohada, Aba Abdillah al-Hussein (AS), rose up against the tyrant of his time and sacrificed everything in that path.

From the Martyr of Karbala to the Karbalaie-Martyr

The story of Karbala is a remarkable one. Karbala is the manifestation of a divine love spanning fourteen centuries—a love that began with the martyrdom of Imam Hussein (AS) and endures to this day. Each year, during the Arbaeen of the Sayyed-o-Shohada, devotees from diverse nations gather for the magnificent, awe-inspiring Arbaeen procession. There, amidst the generous hospitality of the Iraqi people, they partake in the boundless bounty of Imam Hussein (AS); they traverse the path of love in remembrance of the martyred Imam, renew their covenant with the Martyr of the Plains of Nineveh, and glean fresh lessons from this divine school of thought. Throughout the ages, love for Imam Hussein (AS) has stirred a powerful storm within the hearts of truth-seekers, revealing itself anew in unique and profound ways with each passing year. Love for Imam Hussein (AS) has stirred a tempest in the hearts of truth-seekers throughout the centuries, manifesting itself in unique ways time and again. Perhaps the latest manifestation of the surging blood of the Sayyed-o-Shohada (AS) can be witnessed in the martyrdom—at the hands of the Yazids of our time—of a descendant from the pure lineage of Infallibility and Purity. The martyrdom of Grand Ayatollah Imam Khamenei has written a new chapter in the epic of Karbala. There was a time when the standard-bearing of Islam and the revival of the faith was inscribed with the blood of Imam Hussein (AS) and his companions; today, that very path continues through the blood of Seyyed Ali Hosseini Khamenei and the martyrs of the Resistance Front. Once, the demon-like figures and devils of the Umayyad clan stained their hands with the blood of the Khamis-e Al-e Aba [the fifth of the People of the Cloak] in their quest to seize the world, deluding themselves into thinking they could become masters of the earth and [extinguish] the light of truth... Today, too, the “Bani Umayyah” of our era—namely, the terrorist US government and the fake, child-killing Zionist regime—imagined through their diabolical plot that by martyring the standard-bearer of the Front of Truth, Imam Khamenei, they could manage the world as they pleased and escalate their oppression. Yet, just as the banners of vengeance—Ya Latharāt al-Husayn—were raised among the people following the martyrdom of Imam Hussein (AS), consigning his killers to the dustbin of history and consigning them to eternal divine retribution, so too does the Muslim Ummah today—through its unparalleled presence and tens of millions who participated in the funeral processions for the “Master of Martyrs of the Islamic Revolution”—His Eminence Grand Ayatollah Khamenei—and in the farewell to this Mujahid (struggler) in the path of God and martyr for the cause of Truth across Tehran, Qom, Najaf, Karbala, and Mashhad, created a scene in history the likes of which had never before been witnessed in the human world. However, a point worth considering is that just as the popular uprisings following the event of Karbala led to avenging the blood of the Sayyed-o-Shohada—shaking the foundations of the wicked and illegitimate Umayyad clan and driving it to the brink of destruction—the Islamic world today faces a duty even weightier than that of the past:

1- We must intensify the call to avenge the martyrs who—in Iran, Lebanon, Palestine, Yemen, and Iraq—sacrificed their lives for the Husayni cause of “Never to Humiliation” (Hayhat minna al-dhilla). Nowhere in the world should the enemies of Islam feel even the slightest sense of security to continue their acts of wickedness. Without a doubt, every single Zionist leader across the globe must become a target for the unseen strikes of
